Dear Professor Buchanan,

This is just a brief note to thank you for your letter and papers, which I have just received. I look forward to reading them, and will certainly send you my comments in case they may be of use to you.

I cannot do so immediately, however, as I am in a flurry to finish various odd jobs before leaving for the USA--where I shall first be going to Stanford for the IJCAI meeting.

I shall make a point of reading your papers before coming, in case I meet you there, and will think about them at more leisure (if there is such a thing!) after I get back.

All best wishes,
Yours sincerely,
